UNITED STATES' REPLY TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO RETURN THE DEFENDANT TO NEW HAMPSHIRE

On September 12, 2014, a motion was filed seeking the Defendant's return to New Hampshire no later than September 18, 2014, given the successful completion of the Defendant's competency evaluation. Upon further inquiry, the government has been informed by the United States Marshals Service that the Defendant's transport has already been approved, and that the Defendant is due to arrive at his destination facility during the course of this week (the week of September 15, 2014). Accordingly, the government anticipates that the relief being sought by the Defendant will already be met by September 18, 2014, thus rendering his motion moot. However, should the government learn of any further unanticipated delays in completing the Defendant's transport, immediate notification will be provided to the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN P. KACAVAS
United States Attorney
